

Fiinnovation & CII help Bridge the Gap

New Delhi: Fiinnovation & the Confederation of Indian Industries (CII) came together for a conference titled 'Bridging the Gap: Building Ecosystem for Inclusive Value Creation' on 27th November, 2014. The day long workshop was invigorating and informative which was attended by the doyens of the industry.

The Welcome Address by Mr Shreekanth Somany Deputy Chairman, CII Northern Region & Chairman Somany Ceramics Ltd raised the poignant issue of inclusive growth which takes centre stage in the context of India, which accommodates a large section of population which is under 35 years. The session explained the relevance of the conference title and also about the role of inclusive policies leading to dividends.

Mr S Chakraborty, CEO Innovative Financial Advisors Pvt Ltd raised pertinent points during the Context Setting Session where he spoke of the need of using inclusive growth as a weapon to bridge the gap which gives a sense of an uphill task, with energy requirements increasing. He advocated for implementable government structures which facilitate inclusivity. He also spoke of a balance between prosperity and profit by drawing analogy from the family structure, he submitted by recommending industries to function as families, and ensure community ownership to create an impact.

The Special Address by Milind Kamble, Chairman DICCI raised the matter of affirmative action, the historical and the current analysis. The detailed session highlighted the need to take forward affirmative action where the industry needs to play a key role if one speaks of inclusivity. Including vendors from minority groups which shall ensure horizontal growth was a recommendation.

Mr Kartik Bharat Ram Chairman, Regional Committee on Affirmative Action & Deputy Managing Director, SRF LTD gave the concluding remarks and shared with the audience the need for a cohesive society and examples of some companies practising affirmative action.

The conference was a success as it raised pertinent issues of the current day and was attended by an array of stakeholders. The quality of discussion was high and holistic.
